Curriculum thinking should be regular, and a professional dialogue between teachers, teams and colleagues in other schools. Whether we can evaluate a curriculum in a matter of days is another question, but this resource is shared to support those who are revising curriculum plans and schemes of work.

Curriculum Planning | Teacher Toolkit

Curriculum planning includes a teacher creating a class curriculum. The Process. Teachers often draw up their curriculum plans over the summer, while school is out. Plans can range from basic outlines to detailed charts and reports, but almost always include rough ideas of dates, as well as major topics to be covered.

What is Curriculum Planning? (with pictures)

Although it was emphasised that there is no 'Ofsted-approved' curriculum (Spielman says that Ofsted "need to assess a school's curriculum in a way that is valid, fair and reliable, and that recognises the importance of schools' autonomy to choose their own curriculum approaches"), Sealy and Percival focused on how to build a curriculum that prioritised improving children's long ...
