The Land is a protest song, traditionally sung by the Georgist movement in pursuit and promotion of land value taxation. Its first appearance is from a Chicago Georgist publication, The Single Tax, in 1887 as The Land Song. Until the late 1970s it was sung at the end of each year's Liberal Assembly and was the party anthem of the Liberal Party, until that party merged with the SDP to form the Liberal Democrats. To this day it

Radio Netherlands, the Dutch international service, presents "The land belongs to us – land reform in South Africa". The programme is produced and presented by Eric Beauchemin. It's very threatening. You talk about land anywhere in the world, it's threatening. If the need for land is not addressed, there is potential for real violence.
